Decent Housing -

	Assisting homeless persons obtain affordable housing
	Assisting persons at risk of becoming homeless
	Retaining affordable housing stock
	Increasing the availability of affordable permanent housing in standard condition to low- and moderate-income families, particularly to members of disadvantaged minorities without discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, sexual orientation, or disability
	Increasing the supply of supportive housing which includes structural features and services to enable persons with special needs (including persons with HIV/AIDS) to live in dignity and independence
	Providing affordable housing that is accessible to job opportunities

Suitable Living Environment –

	Improving the safety and livability of neighborhoods
	Eliminating blighting influences and the deterioration of property and facilities
	Increasing access to quality public and private facilities and services
	Reducing the isolation of income groups within areas through spatial de-concentration of housing opportunities for lower income persons and the revitalization of deteriorating neighborhoods
	Restoring and preserving properties of special historic, architectural or aesthetic value
	Conserving energy resources and use of renewable energy sources

Expanded Economic Opportunities –

	Job creation and retention
	Establishment, stabilization and expansion of small businesses (including micro-businesses)
	The provision of public services concerned with employment
	The provision of jobs to low-income persons living in areas affected by those programs and activities, or jobs resulting from carrying out activities under programs covered by the plan
	Availability of mortgage financing for low-income persons at reasonable rates using non-discriminatory lending practices
	Access to capital and credit for development activities that promote the long-term economic and social viability of communities
	Empowerment and self-sufficiency for low-income persons to reduce generational poverty in federally-assisted housing and public housing

I hereby certify that all of the information stated herein is true and accurate.
