How Does FSS Work?

About the Program

The FSS Program is a five-year, self-paced, voluntary program designed to assist Housing Choice Voucher participants achieve economic independence. Participation requires a personal commitment by each individual to develop goals that will lead to self-sufficiency. In exchange, participants will receive supportive services and the opportunity to earn an escrow savings account.

These goals may include:

- Education
- Specialized Training
- Job Readiness and Job Placement Activities
- Career Advancement Objectives
- Mentoring
- Budget/Credit Repair
- Home Buyer Education

Goals for each participating family member are set in individual training and services plans attached to the FSS participation contract.

Escrow Account

The incentive of the FSS Program is a special escrow account that is set up for each participant. As the participant's earned income goes up, the rental subsidy remains the same, with the remaining money deposited monthly into a savings account. This account is held for to the participant and and may be disbursed upon graduation from the program. While participating, families may borrow from their savings account once per year to help meet the needs of their personalized goals. Each graduate decides how this money can best serve the future of their family.

Requirements

Participants must:

1. Seek and maintain suitable employment. Must be employed at expiration of the contract and be Welfare-free of cash benefits for one year prior to the expiration of the FSS contract.
2. Be the head of household and have the willingness and ability to meet program requirements.
3. Work closely with a case manager to develop and carry out personal goals individualized by the participant.

Example of Funding the Escrow Savings Account:

At Contract Signing:

No employment income, contract rent is $500.

At First Reexamination:

Employment income increases tenant payment to $300, contract rent is still $500.
